Chapter 1 by -

The water fairy was the oldest daughter of mother nature. Her powers were to be able to do anything made out of water. Her powers came in handy sometimes. She could be mean sometimes.

Chapter 2 by -

The good days were when she thawed ice for wild animals so they could drink from a pond. Or when she kept a glass of iced lemonade from melting in the sun's warmth.

But the bad times, cost lives. Like the time when a man fell into a frozen lake while ice skating, and she sealed the hole up so he could not get back up. Or the time the water fairy made an avalanche cover an entire town.

Yes, she had her good days and her bad days. But today, was an exceptionally horrid experience...
